UNION REFORM NOMINATIONS.

For Governor,

HON. R. B. CARPENTER, OF CHARLESTON.

For Lieutenant-Governor, GENERAL M. C. BUTLER, OF EDGSFIELD.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed firm he New York on Saturday -Cotton was unsettled; middling uplands 193 cents; sales 650 bales.

-In Liverpool cotton was heavy; uplands 191d, Orleans 91d; sales 7000 bales.

Cardinal Antenelli recently married one of his nephews to a spanish lady of fortune, and tias proved himself equal to the occasion by bestowing on the happy pair the sum of 5,000,000 francs, an amount equal to $1,000,000. A machine has been invented by Mr. G. W. Grader, of Memphis, called the "Linter," and by it the waste from the cotton gin known as "motes," and heretofore of no use except as a fertilizer, undergoes a cleansing process, by which it is freed from its impurities and made into a good ordinary cotton sultable for batting or a coarse article of goods.

-A number of prominent Germans of St. Louis held a meeting on Tuesday night to discouss a proposition to send an address to the people of Germany, expressing the sympathy and encouragement of the German Americans of St. Louis, provided war begins between Germany and France. Able speeches were made, and the meeting adjourned with the understanding that in case war is declared an address will be prepared and sent.

A New York letter, of Thursday, says: "As on illustration of the shrewdness and boldness swhich characterize the Wall street speculafions in times like these, the fact may be mentioned that $2500 was paid, day before yesterday, for the single quotation of French rentes, "Athe first that came over the cable,) showing a recovery of 3 per cent. The purchaser sold gold short, and then bought bonds for a rise, and the net profits of the transaction are said to have been $100,000. When the dispatch was received gold was selling at 141, two hours later it was down to 124." The Howard Investigating committee have at last settled their quarrel and the majority atched up a report, whitewashing the chief of the Freedmen's Bureau Ring, who used quarter of a million of money, taken out of ithe Treasury, to found a negro university. Every effort imaginable has been made to tregularities, but the evidence taken in full is said to be very damaging to all parties conmeeted with the ring. The minority of the committee will probably present this evidence the the country as the best answer to the ma-

66 - A duel was fought near St. Louis, on Wedneeday afternoon, between Major Henry Kel-He, on the repertorial staff of the St. Louis have once served in the French army. The Westons were cavalry sabres. Major Keitle received a slight wound on the forehead and a stilling cut on the hand, One of Captain Van's beyes were put out by a thrust from a sabre. The whole affair is involved in mystery. The seconds are unknown, and the principals are extremely relicent. The fight is said to have grown out of some reflections cast on the aghting qualities of the Northern troops by Captain Van. A most unfortunate difficulty occurred between the whites and blacks at Cross Plains, Ala:, on Sunday, the 10th instant. It seems that's white boy and a negro had a quarrel and fought. Several other negroes and whites poming up, a general row ensued. The negroes were dispersed, but having armed themselves returned, and meeting the white boy with whom the first difficulty occurred, in company with a number of ladies, fired into the party. Tals so exasperated the whites, that a large number armed themselves, purthe guilty ones are "public men" who have sued, captured and hung a Mr. Luke, a white school teacher, who is said to have urged the negro. Luke was taken to a house before his negroes on, and four of the ringleaders among the negroes, and also shot and killed another execution and allowed to write a letter to his family. In his letter he denied having excited the negroes to revenge, but claimed to have persuaded them to desist.

The new French minister to Washington

M. Prevost-Paradol, arrived in New York on Wednesday. He is accompanied by his daughter, a young lady of seventeen, and a young pot is calling the congressional kettle black. son, who is now studying under his persona direction. The new minister is described by "the reporters, who hastened to his quarters at the Westminster Hotel for the purpose of "Interviewing" him, as having large, clear hazel eyes and a face always wreathed in smiles, rather than over the middle height, and has all the quickness and vim characteristic a worthy representative of the people. And "the ante-war State tax." Another argument Paristans. He speaks English fluent this is the regular programme. Rival can for Reform, rapid, marked by a slight accent, and singularly vivid and interesting. In dress, M. Paradol is quiet and tasteful, and his general appearance, not less than his manner and conversation, mark him as a man of culture as well as of ability. The Herald scribe had a few moments' conversation with him, before he left for Washington, on the subject of the present complications on the Continent, and although he knew nothing of the warlike news until he landed in Gotham, said the people of France do not want war; they want peace. trade, commerce and industry. But should France-insist upon putting a Prussian upon the Spanish throne-all France will be for war in defence of the legitimate influence of that nation. Such a war would unite Orleanists. Bourbonists, Reds and all parties. There will be but one party in all France when the first shot is fired in defence of French honor, and that the party of the government.

A Mass Meeting of the citizens of Charleston County will be held in front of the Charleston Hotel, in this city, on Wednesday evening next. The Hon. R. B. Carpenter, the candidate of the Union Reform Party for Governor of South Carolina, and General M. C. Butler, the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, will address the meeting.

The Reform Canvass.

Attention is directed to the additions made to the appointments for Public Meetings, at which the Hon. R. B. Carpenter and General M. C. Butler will address the people. The list is now as follows:

Pickens, Monday, July 25. Anderson Courthouse, Wednesday, July 27. Walhalia, Thursday, July 28. Greenville, Friday, July 29. Abbeville Courthouse, Saturday, July 30. Saluda, Old Town, Monday, August 1. Newberry, Tuesday, August 2. Spartanburg, Wednesday, August 3. Union Courthouse, Thursday, August 4. Fish Dam, on the S. and U. R. R., Friday, August 5.

Lexington Courthouse, Monday, August 8. Other appointments will be announced from time to time. Applications for speakers and all communications intended for the State Executive Committee of the Union Reform party must be addressed to the Secretary, E. W. Selbels, Esq., Columbia, S. C.

Give Them Rope Enough!

Only give the Scott Ring rope enough and they will hang themselves. A few months ago the Ring declared that their administration of the affairs of the State was a model of economy, efficiency and purity. This cry they kept up until the facts and official figures, printed in these columns, convicted them of barefaced fraud, of wanton extravagance and shameless corruption. They then changed front. Admitting that the Ring needed reforming, they promised faithfully that, if the people would continue their support, they would make the Ethiopian change his spots, cause the stream of bribery and wrong to flow up hill, and, wonderful to say, convert Scott and his clique into upright, trustworthy men. These promises they asseverated so steadily that, once in a while, a farmer, or a destitute workingman, was found who was willing to give the official thieves another chance at his pocket. But the masses of the people, knowing their unscrupulous character, declined to confide in the Ring, and arrayed themselves under the broad folds of the peaceful banner of Union and Reform. It was folly to expect that the impure, of their own free will, would make themselves clean; it was sheer nonsense to expect from the Ring in 1870-72, more decency and less crime than had marked their whole career in the two preceding years.

Already the event justifies the popular feeling. No one will deny that it is vain to look for official purity in men who are elected by subterfuge, trick and downright cheating; and how shall a legislator be held above reproach who obtains his seat by packing meetings and manipulating conventions? He who buys the vote of another, will, if the bid be high enough, sell his own. And this is the way that the Ring are working. Senator Cain, in the Missionary Record, hews right and left, smashing friend and foe. This model Radical, who, lucus a non lucendo, denounces corruption, and lauds Scott to the skies, now exposes, in an article which we print this morning, some of the tricks of the Charleston corruptionists. The contest for the nomination for Con- 38 in this district is distressingly warm. Meetings and counter-meetings, caucusses and councils, button-holings and whiskey drinkings, go on in every ward of the city. Already the Executive axe has fallen upon the official heads of two unfortunates who support the candidate whom the administration Ring opposes, and it is even reported that Governor Scott and Secretary Cardozo will come down from Columbia to-day, throw themselves into the breach, and make a desperate fight against the immaculate Bowen. Cain says that Bowen wants to be Governor of South Carolina. This is the secret . And it is hard to see why Bowen, with all his sins on his head, would not make as trustworthy a Governor as Robert Kingston Scott. But this does not jump with the ideas of Senator Cain, who presents some curious facts, upon the authority of responsible persons. Cain says that one man offered two dollars for votes for Bowen; that another Radical was detected in voting three tickets at once; that a delegate from the country voted in the city; that a Charleston alderman had forty phosphate diggers under his thumb; that as high as five dollars a head was offered and paid by certain persons. Cain says, further, that

Now, we are not disposed to believe that all the innocence is on the side of Senator Cain, and all the guilt on the side of his opponents. It is, we undertake to say, six of one and half a dozen of the other. The truth is hard to learn, but when this whole dirty business is sifted to the bottom it will be found that the buying and selling on both sides is about the same—that the senatorial No word was uttered against Bowen until his renomination became inconvenient to the Ring. The long array of charges produced against him awakened no anger, and led to no investigation. Until he entered into competition with some new aspirant for congressional honors, he was held by the Ring to be "received honors at the people's hands."

ly and well, and is open and unre- didates fight and quarrel for office. They served in his manner. His conversation is bully and bribe, they lie and steal, and the afflicted State they leave. like a cast-off mistress, to perish from the diseases they have given ber. Let us hear no more of this mockery of Reform in the ranks of the Ring!

The War in Europe - New Developments.

The European dispatches printed this morning indicate a sudden and startling change in the relations of France and

It had been assumed, in the best informed circles, that the arrogant pretensions of France were the main, or only, cause of the war now begun. To the outside observer it seemed inexplicable that the Emperor should refuse to accept the withdrawal of Prince Leopold, accompanied by the Prussian declaration that his nomination was the affair of the Spanish people, and not of Bismarck and King William, unless it was determined to have war at any price. France was known to burn for the possession of the German provinces on the left bank of the Rhine, and it was taken for granted that a desire to extend her frontier to the river was the secret cause of her obstinacy, and the defiant statements of her ministers. This is all changed. The Journal Officiel, the organ of the French Government, prints a dispatch from Bismarck to M. Werther, the Minister of North Germany at Paris. In that letter, which is dated ten days ago, Bismarck tells M. Werther to make "no concessions." He adds these significant words, "We are ready;" and bids the minister do his best to prolong the situation to the 20th July.

This bears only one interpretation. Prussia was bent on war, and her plans are explained by the London Times. That journal, in its issue of Saturday, announces that the acquisition of the old provinces of Alsace and Lorraine, the German-French provinces on the upper and lower Rhine, is the real object of Prussia. The Times goes further, and declares that, in this movement, Prussia has the sympathy of mankind. This is a revolution in the situation. Prussia is fighting to wrest from France a large portion of French territory. France is on the defensive; and Prussia, as the champion of German unity, marches forward her battalions to shear off the old German provinces which have so long been joined to France, although German in habit, thought and feeling. This view is confirmed by the latest telegrams, which announce that the Prussians have marched into the department of Moselle, which forms a part of the old province of Lorraine.

Alsace has the Rhine on the east and the Vosges mountains on the west. It was ceded to France in 1648, and now forms the department of Haut and Bas Rhin. Lorraine was united to the kingdom of Charlemagne, and was afterwards possessed by the Dukes of Austria. In 1736 it was ceded to Stanislas Leozinski, King of Poland, fatherin-law of Louis XV. At the death of Stanislas it passed to the French crown. The importance of the two provinces is shown by the following table:

Departments.	Capital.	Population.
Haut Rhin	Colmar	404,147
Bas Rhin	Strasburg	587,434
Total		1,081,581
	LORRAINE.
Departments.	Capital.	Population.
Meurthe	Nancy	450,425
Meuse	Bar-le-Duc .	328,657
Moselle	Metz	459,684
Vocacoa	Eninal	527,409

Total......1,766,175 And it is only too sure that, if this be the object of the war, France will fight with the utmost desperation. The loss of seven departments, with a population of nearly three million, would strip France of her preeminence, and leave her to play a prominent second fiddle in the harmonies of European

THE Nation says, frankly enough, that the Congressional session now closed has not been a very reputable one; in fact, a more helpless Congress, as far as the national interests are concerned, has not often met. But it did deal energetically with Pat Woods, who buffetted Mr Porter, a member of Congress, in the streets of Richmond. The House took this matter out of the hands of the police, made it a "breach of privilege." and imprisoned Woods for three months. There is no pretence that Woods knew Porter, and what he did commit was a common assault. The Nation may well say that "a 'more miserable and ludicrous piece of ty-"ranny, therefore, than treating it as a vio-"lation of parliamentary law, was probably 'never committed."

THE Carolina Spartan publishes two resolutions adopted by the Union League of Spartanburg County. One resolution declares that no officer, State or Federal, shall hold more offices than will pay, in the aggregate, $1200 a year; and another resolution notifies Governor Scott that T. T. Hamilton and Rice Foster have been refused admission to the League, and are "unworthy the confidence of any true Republican." The Spartan thinks that the offence of Messrs. Foster and Hamilton was making too much noise about certain persons absorbing all the offices.

THE Nation compliments the United States House of Representatives on its treatment of Whittemore, "though it is doubtful whether, owing to its failure to expel him formally "the first time, its position now is technically "sound. The scamp's labors among the col-"ored people are thus thrown away for the 'present. But why don't his defrauded creditors in Massachusetts bring him home on a "requisition from Governor Clafflin? Is he "not 'wanted,' as the police say, in Salem,

A STATEMENT was published that "a mur-"derous plot" was laid for the assassination of Joe Crews. But it turns out to be only a Ring truth-that is, a barefaced falsehood.

FLAVORING EXTRACTS. IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES. QUALITY STILL FURTHER IMPROVED.

We beg leave respectfully to call the attention. of the public to our Superior Flavoring Extracts.
As ten years have now elapsed since we first introduced them to the notice of the American pubtroduced them to the notice of the American prolic, we deem it unnecessary at present to enter into a lengthy description of their merits, &c.
There is hardly a city or town of any note in the country into which they have not found their way. The reason of this widespread popularity and daily increasing demand is owing entirely to their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth.
Being determined to make them the Standard Extracts of the day, we have still further improved their quality, and now we firmly and honestly believe that they stand without a rival. Our Vanilla Extract cannot be surpassed for richness and delicacy of favor. It is a strictly pure and highly concentrated Extract of Vanilla Beans. In short, we think it the best that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judges in the country. We don't pretend to compete in price with try. We don't pretend to compete in price with many of the so-called Flavoring Extracts of the day, which are really but worthless compounds, undescript of the name.

DAVIS & MILLER'S PURE YEAST POWDER A substitute for Yeast in making Hot Bread, Rolls and Batter Cakes of every description, having the advantage of making the dough or batter perfectly light, and ready for baking without delay, and greatly diminishing the liability to become sour.

For quality and style, we defy competition become sour.

Many dyspeptics, who cannot tolerate fresh, light cakes when made with yeast, can eat them with impunity when raised in this way.

When used according to directions, it is warranted to make rich, sweet, light and nutritious Bread and Biscuit, Muffins, Waffles, Corn Bread, all kinds of Griddle Cakes, also Bolled Puddings, https://doi.org/10.1006/j.com/pipes/pdf.pds.46. Dumplings, Pot Pies, &c. PREPARED ONLY BY
